

Special Customer Policy

This policy outlines who qualifies as a special customer, the compensation and services they receive, and how they are identified in our system.

by Neva Zec

How it works:

- special queue for special customers
- we will give straight away higher compensation
- create a message where you express that you can see that this is a VIP customer, and that you can do for them more
- therefore you are giving better compensation
- customers are divided by different categories (depends how much they spent, how many times, who they are etc...)
- Every category has its own "Special" policy for all the cases when the customer gets upset about the "normal" policy
- Most of these customers with the special customers tag - have to have priority service

Hi Christina

Thank you for your reply.

The problem is that I paid extra for "express delivery" and the necklace is for my wife's birthday. Now it's going to be late.

I was told in your last email, that it was still in production but would still be delivered on the 29th, which is obviously impossible due to the fact that I live in England.

I will accept a 20% refund or I will cancel the order, due to not fulfilling the agreement.

Yours sincerely

Mathew Wilson

Dear Mathew,

I'm truly sorry to hear about the delay and the impact it may have on your wife's birthday. I understand how frustrating this situation must be.

While we cannot apply a 20% discount on the order post-purchase, I am happy to offer a refund for the express shipping fee you paid. Please let me know if this solution works for you.

Thank you for your understanding and patience.

Create a message - Make them feel special- create a special feel, emphasize it's a VIP customer and that we usually don't give this compensation (refund, higher gift card...)

How to create:

Order was expected to be delivered today and shipping tracking says it hasn't shipped yet. - customer said this and I want to tell the customer that this customer is our VIP customer and because of that I will give 10% refund from this order and the order will arrive in a couple of days

Here's a response you can use:

Dear [Customer's Name],

I sincerely apologize for the delay with your order. I understand how frustrating this must be, especially since it was expected to arrive today.

As one of our VIP customers, your satisfaction is extremely important to us. To make up for the inconvenience, I have applied a 10% refund to your current order. Rest assured, your order is on its way and should arrive within the next couple of days.

Thank you for your continued loyalty, and please don't hesitate to reach out if you have any further questions or concerns.

emphasize it more that this is a VIP customer also mention that we usually dont give a refund but in this case we will

Dear [Customer's Name],

I want to personally apologize for the delay with your order. We know you were expecting it today, and I completely understand how frustrating this must be.

As one of our most valued VIP customers, your satisfaction is of the utmost importance to us. While it's not our usual policy to issue refunds in situations like this, we want to go the extra mile for you. That's why I've applied a 10% refund to your current order as a special gesture of our appreciation for your loyalty.

Rest assured, your order is on its way and should arrive within the next couple of days. We'll be closely monitoring its progress to ensure no further delays.
